

SEMINAR FALL 2008 SYLLABUS

INTERNATIONAL ENVIRONMENTAL LAW – CLIMATE CHANGE

PROFESSOR BARRY KELLMAN

- | | |
|---|---|
| 1. Overview of Climate Change | 1 – 4, 6 - 12, 20 – 29, 60 – 73 |
| 2. Regime Participants & Negotiating Process | 12 – 19, 30 – 59, 431 – 445,
449 - 457 |
| 3. Common Obligations | 74 – 104, 197 – 212 |
| 4. Annex 1 Nations' Mitigation & Flexibility Mechanisms | 105 – 196 |
| 5. “ | |
| 6. Adaptation & Impacts | 213 – 263 |
| 7. Capacity Building | 265 - 326 |
| 8. Reporting & Review | 327 – 377 |
| 9. Compliance Mechanisms & Institutions | 378 – 430, 464 – 486,
487 – 508 |
| 10. “ | |
| 11. Linkages & Moving Forward | 509 – 543, 560 – 573 |
- All reading assignments refer to: Farhana Yamin & Joanna Depledge, THE INTERNATIONAL CLIMATE CHANGE REGIME, Cambridge University Press (2004) paperback.
 - This seminar requires a “brief” advocating an initiative or problem resolution that promotes the international climate change regime. Briefs should be approximately 20 – 25 single-spaced pages (exclusive of notes). Due dates are as follows
 - Topics must be agreed between each student & Professor Kellman as of 10 February
 - Outlines or Thesis Statements must be submitted as of 10 March
 - Rough Draft must be submitted as of 14 April
 - Meeting with Professor Kellman to discuss Rough Draft: 20 – 28 April
 - Final Draft due no later than 12 May

